

WAIT A SECOND

BY DAVE TYLER

I'm just your average citizen
Not knowing all my rights
And with all your fancy lawyers
It's pretty hard to fight

I'm just a poor housewife
I'm subject to his whims
I don't have enough money
To get away from him

I'm just your little sister
Trying not to fight
But every time we argue
I stay awake all night

I'm just a scared kid who's staying out of sight
Cos every time you hit me
I'm ready to take flight

I'm just your average patient
And life just takes its toll

But every time you drug me
I lose my very soul

I'm just a homosexual
You may not know I'm gay
And if you did you'd mock me
Or make me go away

So come on all you citizens
It's time to take a stand
Just tell those politicians
This isn't what you planned

Let's all create a miracle
Let fantasy take flight
So never be a victim
Especially when you're right

And if that voice inside you
No longer is quite clear
You are lucky in the Yukon
Cos SOS is here

With thanks to SOS, Leslie, Eleanor and Al for all your support. You have made all the difference in my life.
