

Q9: What is the most important takeaway for you from today's session?

OTT ON 2015 - 20 Q9 - Brown.mp3

I think reading these poems and seeing the artwork really reminded me that the people in a given situation are kinda like the experts of their reality and a lot of the times at school I read things from researchers or academics but it's also really important to hear from the people who are going through whatever it is that you are learning about and I think that these poems are really useful and that they capture this time period in history that we have hopefully moved on from somewhat but it's important not to repeat the mistakes of the past, as clinched as that is. I think these poems capture how much hurt was inflicted through neglect and loneliness and isolation. I think they are a really powerful tool.
