

The Field School of the Center to Study Recovery in Social Contexts presents:

MAD PEOPLE'S HISTORY: a Cross-Border, Community - Based Participatory Research (CBPR) Exchange Workshop.

When: Thursday, May 12th, 10:00 am - 4:00 pm, Workshop in Room 1109

Thursday, May 12th, 7:00 pm, Film and Discussion: Working Like Crazy (Room 1109)

Friday May 13th, 10:00 am - 4:00 pm, Workshop in Room 705

Where: Columbia University School of Social Work (CUSSW), 1255 Amsterdam Ave. at 122nd Street

Presenters

David Reville is a part-time Instructor, School of Disability Studies and Research Associate, Ryerson-RBC Institute for Disability Studies Research and Education. David came to Ryerson in the fall of 2004 to teach DST 500: A History of Madness. He has served two terms on Toronto City Council and two in the Ontario Legislature, worked in the Premier's Office and was Chair of the Advocacy Act Commission from in the fall of 1994 to 1996, is a member of the Ontario Council of Alternative Businesses' advisory committee and for seven years, and co-chaired the board of A-WAY Express Couriers. His project is to bring mad knowledge into the academy both here and internationally.

Kathryn Church is Associate Professor in the School of Disability Studies at Ryerson University, Toronto where she teaches community organizing and research methods. From 2002-2009, she directed the School's research program through the Institute for Disability Studies Research and Education. Dr. Church coordinated a national policy development initiative called Building a Framework for Support for the Canadian Mental Health Association and is the author of Forbidden Narratives: Critical Autobiography as Social Science (1995), and editor (with Nina Bascia and Eric Shragge) of Learning through Community: Exploring Participatory Practices (2008). She consulted to the documentary film titled Working Like Crazy, and has curated two exhibits, most recently Out from Under: Disability, History and Things to Remember (with Catherine Frazee and Melanie Panitch.)

Also, don't miss...

Saturday, May 14 NYC Mental Health Film Festival

Community Access and the New York Association of Psychiatric Rehabilitation Services Present "THE MENTAL HEALTH EXPERIENCE: RAW AND UNCUT "

Venue: St Francis College 182 Remsen Street, Brooklyn Heights, NY 11201 (Between Clinton and Court) 4, 5, 2, 3 Trains to Borough Hall A or F to Jay Street/Borough Hall M or R Train to Court Street.

For more information, contact Carla Rabinowitz, 212-780-1400, ext. 7726, or online at <http://www.nycmentalhealthfilmfestival.com>

Film Schedule:

11:30 AM "Family Matters"

12:30 PM "No Kidding Me Too"

2:30 PM Lunch and Discussion

4:30 PM "So You're Going Crazy"

Ticket Information: $5 in advance; $10 at the door.